LOCAL NEWS.

Board of Supervisors meet Wednesday, August 15th.

Tasley fair opens, Tuesday, August 7th, and continues 4 days.

Miss Marcella Duncan is quite sick at her home at Accomac, C. H.

Miss Edith Walker, of Pungoteague, is the guest of Mrs. Dr. J. H. Ayres this week.

Judge Saml. T. Ross and family spent last week in Baltimore, returning home on Saturday.

Mrs. A. Browne Lecato and daughter, of Norfolk, are guests, of her sister, Mrs. Lynn F. Taylor.

Miss Mary Stevenson, of Accomac C. H., left Saturday for a visit to her uncle Dr. Kelly, of Brooklyn.

Mr. Jas. H. Fletcher, Jr., wife and daughters returned Tuesday from a visit to friends at Lexington, Va.

The dates of the Pocomoke fair this year are August 14, 15, 16, 17, as will be noted by advertisement in another column.

The great number of fast horses now in training on the Eastern Shore should make the Tasley Fair meeting, August 7th, the best in its history.

If at the Tasley fair expect to see us and be ready please to hand that dollar over due to us on subscription to Enterprise. We need it in our business.

Rev. J. W. Cammack is conducting a ten days meeting in Matthews County. There will be no preaching at the Onancock Baptist Church next Sunday morning.

An advertisement of A. F. Mears & Co. in another column is of interest to many of our readers. He is offering all goods for cash, to make room for fall stock.

For Gent's furnishings go to Ames, Mills & Co., who carry a very complete line of stylish Summer neckwear, new shape collars and a good display of hosiery.

A feature of the coming Tasley fair meeting, August 7th, will be the unusual number of side shows and other clean amusements. They are already scrapping for space.

A festival will be held under the auspices of Assawamun Chapel, on the afternoon of Tuesday, August 14th. Supper, ice cream and refreshments will be served. Public cordially invited.

Mr. Richard W. Ayres, of Accomac C. H., is, perhaps, the champion grower of big tomatoes this season. Many of his crop weigh one and a half pounds and from one plant he picked two bushels of tomatoes.

The ladies of the Bloxom Missionary Society will have a festival in the Methodist Church yard, Saturday, August 4, beginning at 4 o'clock. Cake, cream and sandwiches will be served. Everybody invited.

The members of Evergreen M. E. Church, South, will serve supper with the usual refreshments on Saturday, August 25th, from 2 p. m. for benefit of parsonage and pews for church. The public is cordially invited.

The catalogues of the Eastern Shore Agricultural Fair Association of this year are in the hands of Mr. J. H. Turner, Painter, for distribution. Call on him or write for one and get your exhibits ready for the "old fair."

We are authorized to say that Mr. Samuel B. White, of Jenkins Bridge, and Mr. Henry R. Boggs, of Cashville, have formed a ticket and will be candidates for treasurer and deputy, respectively, of Accomac County.

The ladies and friends of the Bloxom Episcopal church will hold a lawn party in the church yard, Monday, August 5th, beginning at 4 p. m. Ice cream, cake, confectionaries, etc. for sale. Everybody invited. Proceeds for church debt.

In an advertisement of Dickinson & Son this week an invitation is extended to all who attend the Pocomoke fair to visit their big store. Its doors will be wide open to you whether or not you wish to buy. Read the ad. and the ladies who do will want to call.

Warner Ames, trustee, will sell at public auction on Saturday, August 18th, 10 a. m. on the premises of Everett J. Belote, near Onancock, saw mill, horses, mules, wagons, timber carts &c. o. Andrew J. Thomas. For full particulars see advertisement in this issue.

Excursion trips are being made from Folly Wharf to Metompkiu Beach every Tuesday and Thursday on boats of Capt. W. H. Lang, leaving at 2:30 p. m. and returning at 6:30 p. m. Fare for round trip 25 cents. He is open also for engagements for other days, Sunday's excepted, during the week.

John T. Nock, trustee, will sell at public auction, on Saturday, August 26th, 1906, at 3 o'clock p. m., at "Locksville," all that tract or parcel of land known as the "Winder farm" and belonging to Turner Bros., situated near Locksville, opposite and near Meigs Station. Terms most liberal. This is a valuable tract farm.

John S. Parsons, special commissioner, will sell by public auction at Bloomtown, on Saturday, August 18, 2:30 p. m., the very valuable tract of land on which Thomas Shay now resides, about three-fourths of a mile from Bloomtown, containing 158.66 acres by actual survey, and the interest in a certain lot at Bloomtown. For full particulars see posters.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Onancock.

A very enjoyable dance was given at Hopkins Hall Friday evening.

Mrs. Bertie K. Powell is in Georgetown, Del., visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joseph L. Cahall.

Mr. Henry Parker, who was operated on at St. Joseph Hospital last Friday for an abscess on the knee, is improving and hopes to be at home the last of this week.

Misses Mary and Margaret Harmanson are among the welcome visitors to Onancock. They are the guests of Miss Ethel B. Finney, who entertained at whist in their honor on Friday.

Mr. F. W. Robertson, of Baltimore, who has been in port in his racing yacht, Baylet, left Tuesday to participate in the races of the Hampton Yacht Club and the Columbia Yacht Club.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Nelson regret their departure on Wednesday. They have been guests at Mt. Prospect for the past month and will spend the rest of the summer at Blue Ridge Summit.

The late arrivals at Mt. Prospect are: Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds and son, Dr. J. Newton Bagwell and son, James, of Baltimore; Miss Emily Nugent, Mrs. L. D. T. Quinby and three children, Misses Belle, Elise and Margaret Quinby, of New York.

The entertainment, which was to have been given in the auditorium of the Onancock High School building Wednesday evening, had to be postponed on account of rain and will be given Monday, August 6th. The entertainment is for benefit of the High School and will consist of vocal music, recitations, a drama and music by Southern Band.

The will of the late John R. Sturgis was read last Thursday. He left to his wife the house where he resided, to his grand-daughter, little Miss Mary Sturgis, the Grand Central Hotel and three dwellings in Onancock. The rest of the estate goes to his son, Mr. U. Q. Sturgis, and consists of 22 farms and some money and bonds. The whole estate is valued at about $90,000.

The guests at Mt. Prospect gave a most enjoyable card party on the lawn last Friday morning. Progressive whist was played and all present spent a pleasant morning. The prize, a picture of the party taken by Mr. Pickering Dodge, of Washington, was won by Miss Goldie Bagwell and the booty went to Mrs. Newton Bagwell, of Baltimore. Elegant punch and cake were served. Those present were: Mrs. S. R. Nelson, Mrs. F. W. Robertson, Mrs. J. Newton Bagwell, Miss Lily Nelson, of Baltimore; Mrs. Pickering Dodge, of Washington; Miss Emily Nugent, of New York; Mrs. O. L. Parker, Mrs. R. L. Shield, Mrs. J. P. L. Hopkins, Mrs. R. L. Hopkins, Misses Elizabeth Wise, Annie E. Hopkins, Lettie and Goldie Bagwell, Mary Warren, Frances, Bessie and Constance Taylor, of Onancock.

One of the most delightful entertainments of the season was given by Mrs. Robert L. Hopkins, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Hopkins with her grace of manner welcomed her guests at her B. C. and A. pier, from whence they were conveyed in pleasure boats to Luna Park. Box Ball was enthusiastically played from ten to twelve when the guests were invited to Ingleside, where an old-fashioned Southern w. termelton out was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Hopkins with a few happy remarks presented to Mrs. Perrow a pair silk hose. Mrs. Perrow having proven herself the most skillful player. The booty went to Mrs. S. R. Nelson, of Baltimore. Those present were: Mrs. J. Newton Bagwell, Mrs. S. R. Nelson, Mrs. F. W. Robertson, Mrs. Thomas Waters, Miss Mary Harmanson, of Baltimore; Mrs. Pickering Dodge, of Washington; Miss Emily Nugent, of New York; Mrs. Mosby Perrow, of Lynchburg; Mrs. R. L. Hopkins, Mrs. J. P. L. Hopkins, Mrs. T. S. Hopkins, Mrs. W. C. Bell, Mrs. O. L. Parker, Misses Ethel Finney, Madeline Rich, Pansy Wilkins, Annie E. Hopkins, Cecile Powell, Frances, Bessie and Constance Taylor.

Miss Ethel Parks, of Fairmount, is visiting Miss Myra Boggs at "Cedars."

Mrs. Gay Ames and Miss Frances Medley were guests of Mrs. J. C. Boggs last Monday.

Dr. W. H. Pleasant, his daughter, Miss Mary, and son, Dr. Harry, left Wednesday for their home in Hollins.

Miss Mattie Wise, of Craddockville, and Miss Fannie Willis, of Cape Charles, are guests of Mrs. W. F. Waters at Lanvale.

Miss Margaret Todd and Mr. Frank Perry, who have recently been the guests of Miss Sallie Gayle, left last Tuesday for their home in Salisbury.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was a "Wharf Party" given by the young people of the neighborhood on August 1. Lunch was served and the day was passed pleasantly in games and other pastimes. After a most enjoyable moonlight sail, the young ladies and gentlemen repaired to their homes all the more pleased with the day's outing.

Joe Coard, Chincoteague's trotting wonder, starts at Tasley Fair Tuesday and Wednesday. This is his first effort in fast company. You will see what he can do with a master of the art, Mr. Hentchel, behind him. A great many think highly of him; others don't. Will Chincoteague back her favorite? Long distance conversation is about up. Boys you must now rake or get off the rock.

We are showing a beautiful line of negligee shirts in the new shades and patterns to fit all sizes.

Mr. T. B. Taylor, after spending his vacation here, is again on duty at Metompkin Life Saving Station.

Mr. W. J. Richardson and family of Baltimore arrived at Burton Park Villa this week on their annual summer outing.

Miss Bertha Bailey, of Baltimore, and Miss Nellie Parks, of Pastoria, o, late have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Savage.

Our town was represented by the following on the trip to Chincoteague last week: Mrs. Sadie Savage, Mrs. Sue C. James, Mrs. W. A. Burton, Misses Helen Burton and Lillian Savage, Messrs. E. A. Ames, J. C. Core, L. J. and Geo. B. Savage.

Mr. John S. Finney, of firm of W. S. Finney & Bro., also little Joe, son of Capt. and Mrs. Robert Wise, are both quite ill with typhoid fever.

Miss Marie W. Brown, of N. Calvert St., Baltimore, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Boggs and Mrs. H. C. Drummond, near Cashville, for the past week, returned to her home last Monday on Steamer "Maryland" from Finney's wharf. While with us a well known M. D. of this vicinity seemed to enjoy her company very much, judging from the numerous drives in his new buggy and the many calls at the house where she was stopping. In fact it seemed to be a case of admiration at first sight. We can't say whether wedding bells are to ring as a culmination or not.

Prepare for the fair and buy a stylish suit of clothes that will fit, at reduced price.

Ames, Mills & Co.

Mr. Edward Von Berggrun, late leading baritone for Lou Dockstaders & Primrose minstrels, will give concert at Tasley Fair, Thursday. This is great, don't miss it.

Write to us on for estimates doors sash, blinds, stair-rails and all other kinds of building material, hardware, paints, &c. Stock large, prices low. Mr. R. D. L. Fletcher will be at Accomac Court H. the first day of every County Court, to receive orders for the firm.

Cape Charles Ice and Lumber Co.

Do not buy harness unless it has the "Oakland" stamp on it, as this is a guarantee against all defects.

Ames, Mills & Co.

Chincoteague.

The big opening day at Red Hills on last Wednesday was attended by quite a number of our people.

Mrs. J. W. Warren and children, of Laurel, Del., are visiting her parents, Capt. J. W. Wheaton and wife.

Steamer Chincoteague has returned from her annual repair trip to Wilmington. She received improvements while there, which makes her look like a new boat.

Miss Mary Rich, of Onancock, is the guest of Miss Janie Wheaton; Mrs. Mary Hastings and Miss Jaroia, of Berlin, are visiting at home of Capt. S. E. Matthews.

Capt. N. B. Rich has placed a large house boat in Toms Cove and is having a large wharf built there with bath houses on the same. All are to be under the management of Capt. Wm. Snead.

Our Life Saving boys are at their post of duty again. The physician who examined them this season turned down no one, so far as they can learn, and reinstated one or two who failed to pass last season.

Marriage.

Phillips-Gillespie

Mr. Esie R. Phillips, a prominent and popular young man of upper Accomac and Miss Alice Gillespie, the very attractive daughter of Mr. Albert J. Gillespie, were married in the Temperanceville Methodist Church on Thursday, in the presence of many relatives and friends, Rev. Jno. W. Hundley officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss "Uespie, as maid of honor and the groom, by his brother, Mr. Lloyd Phillips, as best man. The ushers were Messrs. J. Ernest Johnson, C. E. Byrd, W. C. Gillespie and Charlie Dunton. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple took the train for Old Point, New York and a trip up the Hudson river.

An elegant reception was given to the bride party at the home of the bride on Wednesday evening. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents in silverware, cut glass &c. We join in the congratulations and best wishes of their numerous friends.

Accomac Association.

The Accomac Association, composed of the thirty Baptist churches of Accomac and Northampton counties, will meet with the Onancock Baptist Church, August 15th-17th. Delegates and visitors will please write at once to Mr. J. S. Waples, Onancock, Va., so that assignment of homes may be made. Also state on what train you will arrive so that a sufficient number of hacks may be sent to meet all delegates at Tasley.

J. W. Cammack.

Among the attractions at Tasley Fair will be daily balloon ascensions.

When buying harness for road or track purposes, look for the little stamp "Oakland" as it means more than you may think.

Meeting County School Board.

County School Board will meet in annual session at Accomac, C. H., Monday, August 6th at 9 a. m. Full Board urgently requested. District Clerks please come prepared for final settlement with County Treasurer.

Very respectfully,
G. G. Joynes, Supt.
Onancock, Va., July 19, 1906.

Come to Tasley fair grounds any day and witness a speed display of as fine horses as you ever looked on.

If you want fit and wear combined with style and comfort, secure your clothes from clothiers and furnisiers. We have placed a price on our suits that will sell them and will be a saving for you.

Ames, Mills & Co.

The managers of the Tasley fair set the pace in giving large premiums in the ladies, produce and farm departments. The magnificent display each year in these departments is ample reward for their liberality. New ideas and unusual exhibits will be the features this year.

Deaths.

Mr. Alexander M. Lewis died Sunday, July 29th, at his home at Leemont, aged 71 years and was laid to rest in Parkley cemetery, on Wednesday, after funeral services over his remains, in the presence of a large and sorrowing concourse of relatives and friends, conducted by Rev. J. Frank Ayres, assisted by Rev. A. W. Mather. He is survived by his wife and three children—Mrs. Samuel S. Nelson, of Assawamun, and Wm. S. and John H. Lewis, of Leemont. He was a kind husband and loving father and will be sadly missed by his family.

The pall bearers were: Messrs D. H. Johnson, John T. White, Roy D. White, Augustus Parks, William Henry Lewis and Capt. E. S. Hall.

Mr. Solomon Byrd, a gallant Confederate soldier, and one of the most worthy and highly respected citizens of lower Accomac, died Sunday at his home at Belle Haven, of Brights disease, aged 65 years. After funeral services on Tuesday, conducted by Dr. J. H. Moss, his body was laid to rest in Belle Haven cemetery. His wife and four sons—William, Frederic, Frank and Charles Byrd survive him.

Mr. Richard Littleton, a respected citizen of Modestown, was found dead in his bed on Monday last of heart disease. He was about 80 years of age.

Real Estate at Auction.

The valuable tract of land, containing 28 1/2 acres, more or less, of arable and woodland and 140 acres, more or less, of fine pasture land belonging to the widow and heirs of the late J. Oswald Mears and in addition thereto 7 acres, more or less, of nice thick land adjoining the same, situated near Davis Wharf and Craddockville, respectively, will be sold to the highest bidder on Saturday, September 1st, 1906, at 2:30 o'clock, p. m., at Pungoteague by L. Floyd Nock, trustee. This most beautifully located on Oceanhamock Creek
